Guests of IKONDO will be engaging in meaningful service projects in local communities, retreating to the breathtaking countryside and exploring Haiti’s beautiful beaches and landscapes. We believe the future of effective and impactful missions starts with purpose.

IKONDO is a job creation initiative that utilizes dignified hospitality to create sustainable and consistent employment.

At full capacity, IKONDO can host 1500 guests per year, potentially providing 50 direct jobs and 100 indirect jobs, supporting up to 1500 Haitian individuals.

IKONDO establishes a path for the Church to participate in mission trips that provide solutions not dependency.

IKONDO challenges the standard approach to mission trips and has the potential to act as a catalyst to restart Haiti’s tourism industry.

At full capacity, IKONDO has the potential to be an economic engine, providing ongoing revenue to help meet the needs of Hands and Feet Project’s childcare ministry.

IKONDO helps fulfill the mission of the Hands and Feet Project by fighting to keep families together through job creation.
Our Haitian and American staff will guide you as you reach out to be the hands and feet of Christ.

In the spirit of traditional mission trips, IKONDO facilitates multiple opportunities for guests to serve and meet the needs of our local community.
IKONDO provides guests with the unique and invaluable opportunity to experience Haiti's breathtaking beauty, stunning landscape, and vibrant culture in ways that most have never seen.

You will have the opportunity to visit majestic mountains and secluded beaches as you engage in a range of activities, including snorkeling, kayaking, and hiking. You will leave knowing just how awe-inspiring Haiti and its people can be!
From curated retreats to family vacations, IKONDO is a destination that fosters rest, renewal, and refreshment. IKONDO is a place where the restoration of your physical, mental, and spiritual vitality is directly connected to the restoration of our local community.

Providing an opportunity for Haitians to serve you is a great way you can serve Haiti.
NOW BOOKING!

Your trip includes:

- Transportation to and from Port-au-Prince airport
- Locally inspired cuisine
- Comfortable accommodations, ranging from group housing to private suites
- Professionally secured campus
- Opportunities to serve in the community
- Sight-seeing and adventure
- Recreation and games
- Time for rest and spiritual reflection

Your life will never be the same!

For more information please email us at trips@handsandfeetproject.org
IKONDO sets a new standard in mission trip stewardship, providing a more dignified exchange between our compassionate international visitors and our welcoming Haitian hosts. Please join us as we create memories, build relationships, and help transform a nation in the name of Christ.

~ MARK STUART, co-founder Hands and Feet Project

IKONDO
SERVE • EXPLORE • RETREAT

www.handsandfeetproject.org • 877.870.6175